ORDER:

The Registrar, Sri KondaLaxmanTelangana State Horticultural University, Hyderabad vide letter 1st read above has stated that the Government of Telangana vide G.O. Ms. No. 31 & 32, A & C (H&S) Dept., dt: 22-12-2014, established Sri KondaLaxmanTelangana State Horticultural University (SKLTSHU) with headquarters at Rajendranagar campus by dis-affiliating from Dr. YSR Horticultural University, Venkataramannagudem, Tadepalligudem, West Godavari District, Andhra Pradesh. The ICAR Central Monitoring Committee have visited the University Administrative Building at Mulugu (V&M) on 17-09-2016 regarding status of University Construction works. The Committee have suggested to procure an cultivable land in the surroundings of University Administrative Building at Mulugu (V&M) for establishing instructional farms which is must for UG and PG students as a part of their course curriculum for the departments viz. Fruit Science, Vegetable Science, Floriculture & Landscaping, Plantation, Spices and Medicinal Plants, Entomology, Pathology, Breeding, Soil science, Agronomy and Physiology etc. In his Rc. No. 11476/2015/FCA-3, Dt:25-02-2017, the Principal Chief Conservator of Forests, Government of Telangana have accorded In-Principal (Stage-I) approval for diversion of 4.91 Ha of forest land for establishment of Administrative building and other infrastructure facilities for Telangana School of Horticulture in Narsampally R.F. Mulugu (V&M), Siddipet District in favour of Vice-Chancellor, Sri KondaLaxmanTelangana State Horticultural University, Rajendranagar, Hyderabad which is just sufficient for civil works only. The University is planning to start a new batch of Under Graduate and Post Graduate at Mulugu campus from the academic year 2019-2020 onwards and also planning to shift the Administrative Office from Rajendranagar campus to Mulugu campus.

2. The Registrar, SKLTSHU has further stated that the Government of Telangana has established Centre of Excellence (Fruits) under the control of Horticulture Department., along with establishment of seedling production unit i.e Establishment of State-of-art plug type vegetable nursery unit” with state funds. The facility was planted with 39 different varieties from 6 fruit plants; totalling 15895 plants under high density (3 X2 m spacing) using weed mat mulching. The purpose of the facility was to create awareness among farmers through regular training cum demonstration of new technologies, availability of good quality planting material to farmers and dissemination of technology.

3. The Registrar, SKLTSHU has requested Government to facilitate the use of Centre of Excellence (Fruit) Mulugu of Horticulture Department, as “Instruction Farm” for SKLTSHU, Mulugu till the separate land allotted by the Government of Telangana for instructional farms. The UG students will be using this as instruction farm for their practical's and the PG students can use this facility for their research purpose. Further, for accreditation of University by ICAR it is mandatory to establish instructional farm for UG/PG practical and research work. The advance PG research facility in SKLTSHU and horticulture instructional farm as Centre of Excellence (Fruit) will be good combination for the students for conducting advanced research in Horticulture and also an excellent learning experience for the students. Such type of combination between SKLTSHU and Centre of Excellence (Fruit) Mulugu of Horticulture Department will generate futuristic technologies in the horticulture which will ultimately benefit farming community of Telangana.

4. Government after careful examination hereby accord permission to Registrar, Sri KondaLaxmanTelangana State Horticultural University (SKLTSHU), to facilitate the use of Centre of Excellence (Fruit) Mulugu of Horticulture Department, as “Instruction Farm” for SKLTSHU, Mulugu till the separate land allotted by the Government of Telangana for instructional farms.

5. The Director of Horticulture, Hyderabad and Registrar, Sri KondaLaxmanTelangana State Horticultural University shall take necessary action accordingly.
